

Elisa Pulliam

life coach . teacher . writer . inspirer

Elisa Pulliam is passionate about inspiring women to unlock their God-given callings (yes, plural) and purposes for the sake of impacting the next generation.

In spite of not growing up in a Christian home, and spending many years in rebellion, Lisa (which is what she prefers to be called and there's a story about that) came to know Jesus Christ as her personal Savior in the fall of 1993. Ever since, the Lord has been in the process of transforming her from the outside in and inside out. It's this first-hand encounter with God that motivates her to inspire women to pursue God personally and join Him in work in their lives.

As a speaker, Lisa engages audiences through her transparency, story-telling, a good dose of humor, and the practical way she communicates biblical Truth.

As the owner of the KaleoAgency.net, a life coaching and leadership development company, Lisa is privy to the daily struggles and needs of women from all walks of life. Lisa can't help but draw from her experience as a life coach and skill as a life coach trainer as she weaves stories and lessons together to answer the questions pressing on the hearts of women. She is determined to not leave a single woman ill-equipped to face their obstacles, which is why her book, Meet the New You: A 21-Day Plan for Embracing Fresh Attitudes and Focused Habits for Real Life Change, is steeped in Scriptures and engages readers using life coaching principles that lead to lasting change.

Lisa is also the director of MoreToBe.com, a ministry she founded in 2011 as an overflow of her passion for equipping women to mentor and reach the heart of next generation, which was the impetus for her book, Impact Together: Biblical Mentoring Simplified. You'll also find Lisa contributing to TheBetterMom.com and MothersofDaughters.com, and serving on the leadership team of WomenLeadingWomen.us. She also counts it a privilege to lead the One2One Mentoring Ministry at her church.

All of what Lisa does stems from a gratitude for what God has accomplished in her life. She believes each day belongs to the Lord, and seeks to be emotionally present and eternally purposed, especially with her husband of more than 20 years, Stephen, and four tween and teenage children.

With beautiful integrity and an open heart, Elisa encourages women to embrace life. - Rachel Wojo
